About Activity:

We'd organized this virtual Farewell event in MS Teams. It was a very enormous event in a virtual manner. We'd started with the introduction of our event then HOD ma'am had shared a very encouraging speech, then we'd played a video of our seniors where we got to see their experience in RMDSSOE, then we started with our 1st game i.e. completing the Bollywood dialogues, after that we'd asked some of our placed seniors to share their placement journey. Then we moved to our next game where we'd called some random students and we asked them to share any memorable incident which'd happened with them in engineering. After that we started our last game where our seniors had to guess the Bollywood movies with emojis. And then a heartfelt performance was performed by the President of E-words. And by this we'd wound up our event by taking screenshots of the participants who'd been there with us.
