

Professional Students Chapter

Professional Students Chapter is a small society at the college level that is part of the professional body and assists students in grooming themselves through training, industrial interaction, and events. Those who are members of the professional chapter will get a membership certificate and cards from that national professional society. Students can use the membership for their entire engineering career. Students must join in membership each year in order to receive the privileges of the student chapter. The major objective of the professional chapter is to provide quality training programmes to teachers and administrators of technical institutions to update their knowledge and skills in their fields of activity and to assist and contribute in the production and development of top quality professional engineers and technicians needed by the industry and other organisations. Every year a National Seminar with a specific theme with respect to the latest development in the field of Science and Technology and societal problems is being arranged during the Annual convention and leading luminaries of technical education are invited to deliver special lectures and delegates will present research papers. The professional chapter's faculty coordinator will set up weekly quizzes.

Objectives

1. Providing quality training programmes to teachers and administrators of technical institutions to update their knowledge and skills in their fields of activity.
2. To assist and contribute in the production and development of top quality professional engineers and technicians needed by the industry and other organisations.
3. Providing guidance and training to students to develop better learning skills and personality

Responsibilities:

- Members should at all times preserve the dignity and interest of the profession and of the Society by maintaining a high standard of professional and personal conduct;
- They should work in the best interest of the Society;
- They should neither engage in personal advertisement, nor canvas for an appointment, nor take any action which is detrimental to sister Institutions;
- They should at all times endeavour to establish and maintain the best possible conditions of service for their colleagues and other staff;
- When a Member represents the Society, he should as far as possible state the policy of the Society. If he has any disagreement with a policy of the Society, he may so inform the Society. The Executive Council will then decide the further course of action (including the question of the Society's representation) that is to be taken.

- Where, having regard to this Code of Conduct a Member wishes to make a complaint against another Member of the Society, he should do so in writing to the Executive Council. If the Executive Council is of the opinion that prima-facie case of infringement of the Code of Conduct has been established it will appoint a Committee for investigation. On the basis of the report of the Committee, the Executive Council will take a final decision on the matter.
