About Activity:

RMD Sinhgad Technical Institute Campus Department of Information Technology, organized one day webinar on "Research and Development Synergy Program" for students on 20th April, 2023 (Thursday) from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. This webinar was conducted online on the Zoom platform. This program aimed to improve innovation, efficiency, and quality outcomes by utilizing the collective knowledge and expertise of multiple Research and Development teams. The program involved collaboration, shared knowledge and feedback loops to drive innovation and improve processes. The students were made aware about the importance of a research. This synergy can result in more efficient and effective R&D processes, and ultimately lead to the development of better products and technologies.
