Founder and CEO,

Elite Softwares.Pune

      Subject: Invitation for Workshop on Web Development, Python-Django Project Development& Internship.

Respected Mr. Swami Panjala,

      As a convenor of the workshop, I am pleased to invite you to our inaugural Workshop on that Web Development, Python-Django Project Development& Internship will be taking place on August 31th 2023.Bootstrap is an open-source CSS framework for creating a responsive and customizable frontend for websites and web applications. Using Bootstrap's grid system one can easily create a web page very fast. Any webpage these days needs to have a navbar for user navigation, some content & a form for user data submission

We would be thrilled to have you present at this workshop and to hear from you about a few new employability advancements and their impact on different business markets and daily lives.

We look forward to your positive response to the workshop on Website Development using Bootstrap.

Regards,
